

The text:

There are many people living in world having different personalities. This personality, which makes everyone unique and different from others. We can never see two people of exactly the same personality. It never changes and decided the quality of a person. I am taking the example of me. I am so special in this world and have unique personality than others. I am very responsible and helpful person. I always help others and try to do my best to solve their problems. I am self-centred person, which does not have any enemy in this world. (§ 1)

Every one of us wants to be something when we grow up. We dream to achieve something big right from our childhood. There are millions of job professions to choose from and a specific profession we choose that is called “Dream Career”. (§ 2)

Since childhood, my dream is to become a teacher. It is the noblest job in the world where teacher moulds the characters of different personalities not just in academics but as well as individual. There will be no doctors, engineers and any other professions if there are no teachers thus, the future of our nation lies on the teacher’s hands. This principle inculcated in my mind and it motivates me to achieve this dream. (§ 3)
