The Algerian Hero

Abdelkader Ibn Mahieddine known as El Amir Abdelkader was an Algerian religious man and a military leader . This great hero was born in 1807, in Mascara where he grew up and learnt the Quoran as well as other subjects.

El Amir was a political leader and a brave warrior . He successfully faced the French army and saved the Christian community of Damascus from massacre in 1860. So this intervention which is now called the human rights , brought him admiration and awards from around the whole world.

This hero won many battles against the French army. Among his famous battles were ‘ The Battle of Maktaa’ , The Battle of Sig’ and ‘ The Battle of Sidi Brahim’. The French army feared El Amir because they were attacked unexpectedly by his army. He defended his land and protected the Algerian values, language and religion to keep the Algerians unified against their enemy. However , El Amir Abdelkader ended up and he was forced to surrender . In 1884, he was transferred with his family and followers to the ‘ Chateau d’ Amboise’.
